

Speaking of PEACE: A Festival of the Arts

Saturday, May 30, 2009

	On Stage	Children's Activities		Lobby of the Church	Lower Level of the Church		On the Front Lawn
1-1:30	"Stories of peace for all ages" Karen Johnston			Photography Exhibits Sarah Bones : "Healing The Heart" Lori Stringer : "Walking Towards Peace" Student Photography Contest: " Imagine Peace"	Peace Videos playing continuously: "A Force More Powerful" "We Should Talk Peace" And more...	Recording your peace stories-Come with your own story of peacemaking that you would like to record	"All Seasons Caterers" will offer a variety of food throughout the day Add your message of peace to the "Peace Fence" surrounding our community garden Exhibits and displays by local and international peace builders Walk the Peace Labyrinth
1:30-2	Music by Paula Warren, a Joan Baez fan	Children's Egg Hunt	Moon Bounce Puzzles, coloring pages and trivia cards available for independent play
2-2:30		Hayrides
2:30-3	"Peacemaking through the Arts" Leo Hartshorn
3-4:00	Drumming for Peace Leo Hartshorn, Minister of Peace (drums will be available for all ages)
4:00	Presentation of Awards for Student Photo Contest
4:15	"Peacemaking from a Jail Cell" Drick Boyd, Eastern U professor	Peace & art activities for children
4:45	Storytelling: "A Tool for Peacemaking" Mimi Copp, Shalom House	Facepainting
5:15-6	Music by "John Scardina and Friends"	Video: Dr. Seuss' Butter Battle Book
6-7:00	Celmali Jaime & Aleca Slappy present "Murder, Dreams, and Conversation".	Peace and art activities for children					